

“I want to go to Disneyland” Alex, 10

Disneyland is an illustration of movement by families, rides, balloons, music, laughter, characters, and excitement. Alex's dream is brought to life through the silhouette of the iconic logo that represents Disney. Puzzle stars capture memorable sites and characters, which illuminate his dream and facilitate imagination.

Aluminum curves exemplify the constant motion of the Disneyland experience, while the Baltic birch stars symbolize the twinkle in a child's eyes when witnessing the happiest place on earth.

Designed by Danielle Hensley and Vanessa Heuer