

"I wish to have wings like a gargoyle."

- Michael 18 years old

Gargoyles represent strength, power and protection. Wings of the mystical creature gives one the feeling of freedom, and ability to reach new heights. Dark metal was used in the creation of the wings and base to symbolize strength. A clear and semi-translucent plexi glass alludes to airiness and flight. These wings are a symbol of movement, power and protection.

Designed By: Amber Beckham & Amy Lundwall